

Book Report

A C R O S T I C

Book Report

Where does your book take place? Alaska? The Land of Oz? Brad's Bedroom? Choose an important setting in your book and type or write it down the left side of a piece of paper. Next, use those letters as starting points to summarize important events in the story using words and phrases.

Example:

Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing by Judy Blume

N

Naughty Fudge ate Dribble the turtle.

E

Eating in a restaurant with Fudge is a big mess. Mashed potatoes were smashed on the wall.

W

Worked on a transportation project. Peter, Jimmy, and Sheila made a poster that looked like it had a flying train in the middle.

Y

Yelling and screaming was what Fudge did.

O

Of course Fudge lost his two front teeth when he tried to fly from the top of the jungle gym.

R

Riding the toddler bike for a commercial was almost another disaster.

K

Kennel is what Peter got for his new puppy. He named him Turtle after his pet that Fudge ate.

ACROSTIC Book Report

Brainstorming and 1st draft space sheet.

Do NOT turn this sheet in.

Title of your book: _____ Pages: _____

Important setting in your book: _____

Use the setting as the main word of your acrostic!

What are some of the significant events that occurred in your book?

page	event

Almost done! Use a clean piece of paper to type or write your Acrostic like the example of the other side!

Book Report Checklist

Turn in this form with your project.

Teacher	Me	Checklist Items
Work Habits
	☺ ☹	The book report was turned in on time.
	☺ ☹	The project was done with care and is neat and tidy.
	☺ ☹	The handwriting or typing is neat and easy to read. tip – trace over pencil with black felt tip marker to make it easier to read.
Content
	☺ ☹	The main SETTING of the story is used as the main word in the acrostic.
The acrostic includes:
	☺ ☹	main character and other significant people are included in write-ups.
	☺ ☹	major events in the story are part of the acrostic
	☺ ☹	major conflicts and problems within the story are part of the acrostic
	☺ ☹	solutions to the problems are also included in the acrostic
Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics
	☺ ☹	The title of the book is capitalized and underlined correctly.
	☺ ☹	ALL words are spelled correctly.
	☺ ☹	All proper nouns are capitalized correctly.

If you were the teacher, what comments would you make about your project?

In what ways do you think you met 3rd grade standards? In what ways do you think you could improve?