

September

Name _____ # _____

Memory String Book Report

In Eve Bunting's The Memory String, a girl remembers important events in her life with a collection of buttons, charms, baubles, and "what-nots".

For this book report, you need to put together a memory string about your fiction book that visually tells about the book you read.

- Objects for this book report can be created or found, i.e. drawings, clip art, found objects, art projects, etc. that represent the events, important ideas, and people in your book.
- Your project should be about 3 feet long.
- If you use paper for this project, you must back it with something stronger, so your pieces do not curl up.
- Put the title of the book and author at the top of your string, your name is at the bottom.

This organizer gets turned in with your memory string.

Title of Book: _____

Author: _____

Number of Pages: _____

What object are you going to use to represent each element of the story? Sketch a rough draft of it here.	Explain how that object symbolizes that element of the story? Use complete sentences.
Main Character	How does this object symbolize your main character?
Setting	How does this object symbolize the setting?
Problem	How does this object symbolize the problem?
Important Event #1	How does this object symbolize Important Event #1?

Important Event #1	How does this object symbolize Important Event #1?
Important Event #2	How does this object symbolize Important Event #2?
Important Event #3	How does this object symbolize Important Event #3?
Turning Point A "turning point" is the place in the story where a big change happens that is beneficial to the main character.	How does this object symbolize your Turning Point?
Conclusion	How does this object symbolize your conclusion?

